Welcome to Syracuse University!

All of us here are eager to welcome you to our vibrant Orange community. You have learned so much that you bring with you to campus. Many of you finished your senior year of high school during a global pandemic. All of us have faced challenges. We have learned that honesty is important, kindness matters, and overcoming obstacles in the face of adversity can be more rewarding than things that come easily.

On behalf of Syracuse University and our 250,000 alumni from around the world, we are so grateful you have chosen to be here. You are ready to succeed. Your Syracuse University experience this fall will be a vibrant, in-person academic experience that will take you beyond the classroom, let you engage with your current interests, and experience new ones.

Your Syracuse journey will be one where you chart your own course. You may work in a lab that will help discover a future cure that will save lives. You might help engineer a new material or design a building that improves a community. You may inspire a child to become the first in their family to go to college or help advance policies that make it possible for them to do so. You may join a student organization that helps you identify your passion, and find the leader within you. You will build friendships that last a lifetime and gain a professional network that will be with you wherever you go.

By taking advantage of all that Syracuse has to offer, you may discover that college is everything you imagined it would be and more than you could have dreamed of. Only you can define your experience. This guide will help you begin your Orange journey.

We are delighted to welcome you, eager to get to know you, and here to help you achieve your goals. Enjoy the rest of your summer and get ready for a great year ahead. We can’t wait to see what you will do next.

Sincerely,

Kent Syverud
Chancellor and President
We ask students to make a commitment to help keep our campus community safe from the spread of COVID-19. Please review the Stay Safe Pledge and affirm your commitment at syracuse.edu/staysafe/stay-safe-pledge.
Welcome to our vibrant community of innovators, thinkers and creative solution finders. As you begin your Syracuse University journey, you’ll connect to new friends, expand your knowledge, embrace new experiences and join our global Orange network. Your Syracuse story starts today!

Your guide to Syracuse Welcome 2021.

What is Syracuse Welcome?
Syracuse Welcome is Syracuse University’s required orientation program for new students that serves as the gateway to your college experience. During Syracuse Welcome, you’ll participate in academic, educational and social programs designed to make your transition seamless and fun. These events prepare you for classes, get you settled in your residence hall, introduce you to campus resources and familiarize you with University traditions. They also offer plenty of opportunities to meet fellow students.

The Office of First-Year and Transfer Programs (FYTP) hosts Syracuse Welcome and is committed to helping you make a successful transition to college life. From the day you’re admitted and throughout your Syracuse career, FYTP is your partner in achieving academic excellence and personal goals.

Find everything you need to know and do at ese.syr.edu/firstyear, including key information and requirements, access to required forms and the new student checklist. Be sure to keep up to date with your Syracuse University email, too.

NOW YOU ARE HERE
Parking
Parking is limited to certain areas on campus during Syracuse Welcome. After you finish unloading your car at your residence hall, staff/volunteers will direct you to a permitted parking area. To accommodate student move-in, parking is prohibited at residence halls.

Parking Permits
Residential first-year and transfer students may not bring vehicles to campus without prior approval by Parking and Transit Services. Eligible students may pick up or purchase permits at the Parking and Transit Services Office, 621 Skytop Road. Visit ese.syr.edu/firstyear for hours of operation during Syracuse Welcome.

Syracuse University I.D. Card
What Is Your Syracuse University I.D.?
The Syracuse University I.D. card is the official identification card for every student, faculty and staff member. Your I.D. allows you to do all of the following and more:

- Gain entry to various campus facilities
- Access your meal plan
- Check out library materials
- Ride campus shuttle buses for free
- Use campus recreation facilities
- Use ‘CUSE Cash funds

Obtaining Your Syracuse University I.D.
Before the July 15 deadline, upload your photo at housingmealplans.syr.edu/idcards/photosubmission so your I.D. can be ready when you arrive on campus. If you uploaded your photo by the deadline, your I.D. will be waiting for you when you check in to your residence hall or South Campus apartment. I.D. cards will not be distributed before the check-in/move-in time.

Commuter Students
If you submitted your photo, you can pick up your Syracuse University I.D. card from the Housing, Meal Plan and I.D. Card trailer, located on the Quad during move-in week. Questions? Email housing@syr.edu.

Dining Centers, Meal Plans and More
There are five residential dining centers on campus: Brockway, Ernie Davis, Graham, Sadler and Shaw. For hours of operation during Syracuse Welcome, visit ese.syr.edu/firstyear.

Meal Plans
Syracuse University uses a block meal plan system. Based on your class year and on-campus residence, you’ll select a block meal plan that best suits your needs. Plans include a set number of meals that can be used each semester at any of the five campus dining centers. Example: A student who chooses the Block 220 meal plan may eat 220 meals at any campus dining center over the course of a semester.

Most meal plans also include a set amount of Meal Plan Dining Dollars, a supplemental declining balance that can be used on food purchases at various locations operated by University Food Services (cafes, the West Campus Starbucks, Schine Dining) across campus. The Orange Unlimited and Blue Unlimited meal plans also include 10 guest meals per semester.

If you have special dietary needs such as a food allergy, please contact the Food Services’ registered dietitian at 315.443.9884.

If you didn’t submit your photo by the deadline, follow the instructions for upload at housingmealplans.syr.edu/idcards/photosubmission. A staff member will reach out to you with information on how to pick up your Syracuse University I.D. card once you arrive on campus.
GETTING CONNECTED

All Syracuse University residence halls are equipped with high-speed wireless and wired network service. You’ll receive information about connecting devices to University networks at residence hall check-in and via Information Technology Services (ITS) communications to your University email address. To connect, you’ll need a Syracuse University NetID and password, as well as access to each device’s administrator account.

All students have access to Zoom videoconferencing. Learn more about Zoom at Syracuse University and log in to your account at zoom.syr.edu. You’ll also have access to Microsoft Office 365, which includes Word, PowerPoint, Excel, Outlook, Teams and more. This resource is available to active students at no additional cost.

Another key resource is Google Suite (or G Suite), which provides a wide array of online collaboration and file sharing tools. To log in, go to accounts.google.com, using YourNetID@g.syr.edu as your username. Your G Suite password is the same as your NetID password.

For more information about tools and services available through ITS, visit its.syr.edu/students.

For details about ITS technical support during Syracuse Welcome, visit its.syr.edu/welcome.

For assistance:
• Call 315.443.2677
• Email help@syr.edu
• Search answers.syr.edu
• Visit its.syr.edu/its_service_center
You also can follow ITS on Instagram (@su_its) for tech tips and tricks.

‘CUSE Cash

‘CUSE Cash is a declining balance account you can use to purchase food and other goods and services using your Syracuse University I.D. card. ‘CUSE Cash can be used at the Campus Store, campus convenience stores, vending machines, Schine Dining, stadium concession stands and shops, campus cafes and more.

‘CUSE Cash funds can be added through the GET app and through the Housing portal in MySlice. Funds roll over from fall to spring semester, and any remaining balance is refunded to student accounts at the end of each academic year.

GET Funds

The GET application—available at get.cbord.com/syracuse or through the GET mobile app in your app store—allows for the instantaneous addition of funds to your ‘CUSE Cash account. A parent or family member needs to know your Syracuse University I.D. number to add to your account.

Academic Advising

Academic advising is an essential component of a Syracuse University education. Successful advising depends on students, faculty and staff sharing timely, accurate information with one another.

Student Responsibilities

You are responsible for scheduling, preparing for and keeping advising appointments; for seeking out contacts and information; and for knowing the basic requirements of your academic programs. You will bear the final responsibility for making decisions based on the best information and advice available and, ultimately, on your own judgment.

Advisor Responsibilities

Advisors are responsible for developing a thorough knowledge of the degree requirements within a student’s program of study and a working knowledge of academic options and resources throughout the University. Advisors will encourage you to ask questions, gather information, and explore options so you can develop a meaningful academic plan.
KICK OFF YOUR FIRST SEMESTER WITH CLASS, THE CENTER FOR LEARNING AND STUDENT SUCCESS

CLASS peer tutors and coaches are available to help new students make the transition to college. They are trained in research-based strategies to make sure the time you invest in studying is efficient and effective, from study tips and mindfulness to strategies for conquering procrastination and exam anxiety. Studies show that students who attend group tutoring regularly or complete academic coaching earn higher grades than those who do not participate.

Alejandro Parra ’24 is glad he took advantage of CLASS services when he was a first-year student. “I was worried about being academically challenged or overwhelmed because I was taking hard courses like chemistry, statistics and economics,” Parra says. To start his college career on the right foot, he enrolled in CLASS group tutoring for all three courses. “It was very individualized,” Parra says. “I found it really helpful to meet with the tutor before each lecture to get an overview of the material. As a result, I got more out of lectures and was able to ask better questions to be sure I really understood the concepts.”

CLASS offers a variety of services for new domestic and international students, such as small-group tutoring for historically challenging courses, academic mindfulness workshops, and Maximizing Learning sessions in English and Mandarin. Learn about Fall 2021 programs at class.syr.edu, or email CLASS@syr.edu.

Orange Success and Degree Works
Orange Success and Degree Works are web-based tools providing comprehensive advising and degree audit support for all students. Connect to faculty and staff for help achieving a successful academic career, and stay on track for degree completion.

Access Orange Success through MySlice (select “Ask for Help in Orange Success” in the “Student Services” pagelet); through Blackboard (via the “Tools” panel); or through the Syracuse University Mobile app (via the “Academics” menu). For more information, visit orangesuccess.syr.edu.

Access Degree Works through the MySlice “Applications” pagelet. For more information, visit dw.syr.edu.
3 SYRACUSE WELCOME EVENTS
Schedule of Events
There’s so much going on! Your Syracuse Welcome experience features a multitude of programs and events designed to connect new students to the University and each other. The complete schedule is available at ese.syr.edu/firstyear. (QR code above.)

Move-In Experience
Tuesday, Aug. 24–Thursday, Aug. 26
New residential students living on North Campus move in to residence halls. Orientation leaders, along with the Goon Squad and faculty and staff volunteers, will be on hand to greet and help you.

New Student Convocation
Thursday, Aug. 26
This special academic ceremony marks the opening of the University and beginning of new students’ careers at Syracuse University. Convocation includes a welcome from the University Chancellor and the provost.

Academic Connections
Friday, Aug. 27–Sunday, Aug. 29
Throughout the weekend, you’ll participate in various activities within your school/college, including a Dean’s Welcome and meetings with peer and academic advisors. Participation in scheduled academic events is required; be sure to review your individual school/college schedule for details.

Citrus in the City
Saturday, Aug. 28
Sample food from local restaurants while enjoying entertainment provided by current student organizations. Sure to be a Syracuse Welcome favorite, Citrus in the City is an experience you won’t want to miss!

Evening Activities
From Orange Blast! to The Slice Is Right Game Show and more, Syracuse Welcome offers daily social opportunities for new students to connect.

WHO ARE THE PEOPLE PUSHING THE MOVING BINS?
The Goon Squad
In 1944, the Syracuse University Traditions Commission founded the Goon Squad to ensure that new students wore beanies to mark their first-year status. However, the organization quickly morphed into an energetic welcoming committee for new students, meeting them at bus and train stations, giving informative campus tours and introducing them to pep rallies and the cheering section at football games.

In the 1960s and 1970s, Goon Squad members continued to lead organized new student welcoming activities, including residence hall move-in and an annual parody show.

Today, the Goon Squad is best known for helping first-year and transfer students with the move-in process during Syracuse Welcome, swooping in to help unload luggage from curbside vehicles and swiftly cart it to student rooms. Nearly 400 students in diverse student organizations across campus participate in the Goon Squad. This year, the spirit of welcoming and assisting first-year and transfer students and their families is stronger than ever: More than 40 student organizations are represented, and the vast majority of Goons volunteer for multiple shifts.

YOUR FIRST-YEAR EXPERIENCE
First-Year Seminar
Syracuse University offers signature experiences to help you successfully begin your academic journey and build lasting connections to the University and your peers. One of these experiences is First-Year Seminar (FYS 101), a one-credit, semester-long course that engages students in guided conversations, experiential activities and written assignments related to the transition to Syracuse University. During this course, you’ll explore personal goals for your education at Syracuse University, develop an understanding of the complex components of identity and how they relate to multiple communities, and discover points of connection within the University community.

What to Expect
In FYS 101, you’ll engage with peers across disciplines in small classes. Each section of FYS 101 is taught by a lead facilitator and a peer leader who assist students in learning about topics like belonging, interdependence, health and wellness, identity, socialization, prejudice, discrimination, bias and stereotype. Academic articles, podcasts, Ted Talks, social media, videos, campus and community engagement, and reflective writing form the basis for active learning in the course.

Home College Experience
As part of FYS 101, the Home College Experience provides discipline-specific opportunities for you to connect to and build community within your home school or college. Special programming includes interactive outdoor events, performances, registration fairs, engagement opportunities with major-based student organizations and more. The FYS 101 Home College Experience takes place in the fall semester during Week 4 (Sept. 20-24), Week 9 (Oct. 25-29) and Week 12 (Nov. 15-19). Specific dates and times are listed on your course schedule. For more information, visit ese.syr.edu/firstyear/

First-Year Student Engagement
Syracuse University offers multiple clubs and organizations specifically designed to support and mentor you as a new student.

First-Year Players
Started in 1992 by a small group of students determined to create an outlet to express their love of theater and build community, First Year Players (FYP) is the University’s premier student-run musical theater organization. Through FYP, first-year and transfer students who are not drama majors have the opportunity to perform in an annual spring musical and gain experience in planning, producing and organizing activities for the production. FYP hosts information sessions during the fall semester and hosts auditions in January. For more information, contact firstyearplayers@gmail.com.

OrangeSeeds
OrangeSeeds is a leadership empowerment program for first-year and transfer students that offers a wide network of campus leaders and resources, professional mentorship and community service opportunities. With support from peer mentors, first-year Seeds connect with student, faculty and staff leaders and participate in on- and off-campus volunteering through hundreds of student organizations in order to grow as campus leaders. The OrangeSeeds experience culminates with the planning and implementation of The Big Event, the largest student-run day of community service at Syracuse University. For more information, visit orangeseeds.syr.edu or email orangeseedsfytp@gmail.com. The application for 2021-22 is available at bit.ly/orangeseeds2021-2022.

WellsLink
The WellsLink Leadership Program is a nationally recognized academic and leadership excellence program for first-year students of color at Syracuse University. Through mentoring and structured academic, social and cultural enrichment activities, WellsLink participants gain tools to help them achieve academic goals, develop professionalism, and expand their awareness of resources and opportunities on campus. Following two semesters of participation, WellsLink alumni join a select community of high achievers and community leaders and have the opportunity to join the second-year WellsLink program. The application deadline for 2021-22 is Aug. 27, 2021. Find more information, including how to apply, at ese.syr.edu/multicultural or contact Huey Hsiao at huhsiao@syr.edu.

More Ways to Be Involved

With over 300 student organizations, Syracuse University offers plenty of opportunities to explore your interests, pursue your passions, and be involved in the campus community. Learn more at syracuse.edu/life/groups-activities.

Student Involvement Fair
The annual Student Involvement Fair hosts over 150 student organizations and provides a great opportunity for you to learn about all the ways to be involved on campus. For more information, check out the University community calendar at calendar.syracuse.edu/events.

Build Connections and Friendships
The Orange community can’t wait to meet you! Start making lifelong connections today.

- Join a Club With ’Cuse Activities. The platform connects you to over 300 student organizations and provides details on how to join.
- Explore the Community Calendar. Check frequently for academic, wellness, connection building opportunities and more.
- Attend Orange After Dark Events. With the help of a student team, these events encourage fun, relaxation and connection.
- Connect to Campus With The Peel. As a fun newsletter and blog, The Peel connects you to campus through stories, quizzes and events. Learn more at news.syr.edu/the-peel.
- Follow the Orange Community Social Media Accounts. The social media directory connects you to news on campus and across the globe. Learn more at syracuse.edu/about/social-media.

Grow With Mentorship
A robust campus community is at your side to offer guidance, information and encouragement. Mentorship opportunities are offered through the following offices:
- Disability Cultural Center
- Office of First-Year and Transfer Programs
- Hendricks Chapel
- Center for International Services
- LGBTQ Resource Center
- Office of Multicultural Affairs
- Winnick Hillel Center for Jewish Life

The Intercultural Collective at the Schine Student Center
The exploration, expression and celebration of identity take a central role at the Intercultural Collective, where the Office of Multicultural Affairs joins the Disability Cultural Center and the LGBTQ Resource Center on the first floor of the Schine Student Center. The co-location of these groups in a central, easily accessible place on campus honors the intersectionality of identity and allows for coalition-building and collaboration.

“There are so many students at the University who are involved in initiatives that support underrepresented communities—there’s so much energy and so much passion around these topics,” says Christian Buonadonna ’22. “The Intercultural Collective is there for all students. It helps us be the kind of community we want to be.”
TALK ABOUT TRADITIONS!

For more than 150 years, Syracuse University has built many strong traditions of spirit and community that will surround you throughout your Orange experience. As you begin your life on campus during Syracuse Welcome, you’re bound to learn about and encounter these traditions.

The Alma Mater
Syracuse University’s alma mater, “Song of Syracuse,” was first sung in public on March 15, 1893, by the University Glee and Banjo Club. It was written by Junius W. Stevens, Class of 1895, who recalled, “While I was walking home across the city—I lived in the northerly section—an idea for the song came to me. I had often noticed how the setting sun lighted up the walls of Crouse College long after dusk had fallen over the city and the valley. As I walked through the empty streets the words of a song took shape in my mind. By the time I reached home, the song was finished.”

Where the vale of Onondaga
Meets the eastern sky
Proudly stands our Alma Mater
On her hilltop high.
Flag we love! Orange! Float for aye,
Old Syracuse, o’er thee.
Loyal be thy sons and daughters
To thy memory.

National Orange Day
National Orange Day commemorates Syracuse University Founders Day on March 24. On this day each year, alumni from around the world show their pride by sporting the color orange, while students and the campus community participate in service-oriented activities.

The Color Orange
Orange became Syracuse University’s official color in 1890, making Syracuse the first college to adopt only one official color. The original school colors, adopted in 1872, were rose pink and pea green. These colors were not popular, so orange was chosen to represent the Golden Apples from the Garden of the Hesperides in Greek mythology. Today, you’ll see students sporting orange year-round, but especially on game days when the whole community joins in and displays Orange pride.

The Legend of #44
44 is one of the most fabled numbers ever associated with a college football program. Since 1954, nine football players have worn #44, three of whom earned All-America honors: Jim Brown, Ernie Davis and Floyd Little. In basketball, two players wearing the same number broke scoring records: Derrick Coleman and John Wallace. To recognize the significance of #44, the University’s zip code is 13244 and University phone numbers begin with 44.
Otto

Before Otto became our beloved mascot, Syracuse University was home to multiple mascots, beginning with Vita the Goat in the 1920s. It wasn’t easy to put a face on the essence of Orange, but Otto does it perfectly. Exuberant, happy-go-lucky and kind, Otto spreads sunshine and the Syracuse spirit everywhere they go. No wonder Sports Illustrated named Otto among the best mascots in college football history in 2019! Otto is everyone’s biggest cheerleader and wants to celebrate your new Orange life. Look for Otto zooming around campus on a scooter, giving high fives and leading random dance parties—and be sure to stop and say hi. To keep up to date with our beloved mascot’s whereabouts, follow Otto on social media @TheOttoOrange.

CAMPUS RESOURCES
The Schine Student Center

The Hildegarde and J. Myer Schine Student Center is the hub of student activity at Syracuse University. Located at 200 Waverly Ave. adjacent to the Einhorn Family Walk, it is a bustling gateway to the Quad and main campus.

The newly renovated Schine Student Center houses the 1,500-seat Goldstein Auditorium, Schine Dining, the Campus Store, the Intercultural Collective, the Faye and Henry A. Panasci Lounge, a nightclub-esque performance space called The Underground, and other versatile spaces to support student organizations, studying, group meetings or lounging.

Learn more at ese.syr.edu/studentcenters/schine-student-center, and visit the Schine Student Center to explore this dynamic, welcoming space in the heart of the Orange community.

Syracuse University Campus Store

The Campus Store is located in the Schine Student Center. You can pick up preordered textbooks and computers on the store’s third level. If you did not preorder, knowledgeable staff are available to assist with selecting course materials from new, used, digital and rental inventory. Apple and Dell computers are in stock. Learn more at syrcampusstore.com.

A VISION FROM MANY VOICES

Syracuse University students expressed their desire for a student union on campus as far back as 1911. In 1937, Club Sahara, the first student union, was built in the basement of Slocum Hall. Over the next few decades, students gathered in temporary student center locations all over campus to study, socialize and dine, but still lacked a central place to call their own.

Then, in the 1980s, Trustee Renée Schine Crown ’50, H’84 led the effort to establish a true home for students. Built in 1985, the Hildegarde and J. Myer Schine Student Center was made possible by a gift from Crown, who named it in honor of her parents. Since then, it has been a hub of activity on campus, with current students, prospective students and families on tours, alumni and visitors passing through every day.

Three decades after dedicating the original Schine Student Center, Renée and Lester Crown played an active role as students reimagined this space to connect, relax and grow. In 2017, students provided input on their vision for a redesigned student union, and plans to transform the facility began to take shape. With support from the Crowns, students, faculty, staff, donors and the Board of Trustees, the newly renovated Schine Student Center opened in spring 2021.
Libraries

Make yourself at home

BUDDY MURPHY ’23
Resident Advisor
Hometown: Livingston, Mont.

Programs of study: Major in communication and rhetorical studies, minor in music industry.

Where you can find them on campus: Hanging out on the Quad, at University Union concerts (or backstage!) in Goldstein Auditorium and other venues.

Favorite student activities: Being an RA, working on “The Juice” radio show on FM Z89, writing for the hip-hop magazine Mixtope.

Favorite study spot: Eggers Cafe in Maxwell Hall—great view.

Tip for new students: Make your room your home with posters, extra lighting and mattress toppers!
Step outside your comfort zone

ENRIQUE RAMON PREJULA ’23
Orientation Leader
Hometown: Manila, Philippines

Programs of study: Majors in finance and management.

Where you can find them on campus: Lots of places, but always at Orange After Dark events.

Best thing about being a Syracuse student: The sense of community—you can find a home away from home here.

What’s next: Combining my academic preparation with my interests in advocating for education and the promotion of the arts.

Tip for new students: Don’t be afraid to step outside your comfort zone and interact with new people; we’re here to help each other.
