New Student Organization Application Organization Questions

Organization Name:

Please answer the questions below as thoroughly as possible, using as much space as necessary.

- 1) What are the vision, mission, and goals of this organization?

- 2) Describe how registration of your organization will benefit the SU/ESF community.

- 3) Describe why your organization is seeking to be a registered organization and what you hope to gain from working with the Office of Student Activities.

- 4) What programs or events does the organization plan to hold if it is granted registration? Discuss in detail. (If your organization is not event based, please describe any initiatives and/or goals.)

- 5) Please describe the relationship the organization has with its advisor and the role they play/will play with the organization.

- 6) Please research organizations that are currently recognized by the Office of Student Activities on Campus Labs. Are any similar to the organization you are proposing? How is this organization different?

- 7) Is your organization intending to operate as an umbrella organization for similar groups, (such as a council) or as a stand-alone organization?

New Student Organization Application University Advisor Contract

A useful instrument for sharing expectations and clearly identifying an Advisor's role is the Advisor Contract. Please take a moment to review and sign this advisor contract. Please note that duplicates of this signed document have the potential to be copied to the dean, director, or department head of the advisor's home unit. This will inform your school or department area of the commitment you are making to SU and the student organization. If you need help scanning this document, please visit the Office of Student Activities, Women's Building, Suite 100.

The members of _____ (Organization) request _____ (Advisor's Name), _____ (Title), to serve as their Advisor organization beginning _____ (Semester). This contract is to be effective for one year, and may be renewed at the start of each fall semester upon the agreement of both parties.

Duties, responsibilities, and expectations of the position are as follows:

(List the responsibilities and expectations of the Advisor and organization. Duties may be reconsidered at the request of the Advisor, organization president, or majority vote of the membership during a regular meeting.)

New Student Organization Application

Outline of Constitution

The Articles below MUST be included in the organization's official constitution EXACTLY as they appear below in order to represent the organization's constitution as "valid." The entire document must then be submitted for approval.

Article II, Section IV: Organization Consultant

Every student organization is assigned an organization consultant out of the Office of Student Activities. The Office of Student Activities reserves the right to assign and change the organization's assigned organization consultant. The appointed person will be a professional staff member out of the Office of Student Activities and will act as a resource and guide to the organization in the program planning process.

Article VIII – Not-for-Profit Statement

This is not-for-profit organization.

ARTICLE IX – Financial Obligation

A majority of voting members of this organization may determine reasonable dues and fees assessed to each member at the beginning of each semester. A specific member or members, designated by this organization shall be responsible for payment in full of all debts accumulated by the organization not covered by funds on deposit.

ARTICLE X – Statement of Non-discrimination

The University does not discriminate and prohibits harassment or discrimination related to any protected category including creed, ethnicity, citizenship, sexual orientation, national origin, sex, gender, pregnancy, disability, marital status, political or social affiliation, age, race, color, veteran status, military status, religion, sexual orientation, domestic violence status, genetic information, gender identity, gender expression or perceived gender¹.

ARTICLE XI – Statement of Non-Hazing

This organization will not conspire to engage in hazing, as defined by New York Penal Law 120.16 and New York Penal Law 120.17, or commit any act that causes or is likely to cause bodily danger, physical harm, or personal degradation or disgrace resulting in physical or mental harm to any fellow student or person attending the institution.

ARTICLE XII – Statement of Compliance with Campus Regulations

This organization shall comply with the Syracuse University Code of Student Conduct.

New Student Organization Application Meeting with the New RSO Review Board (NRRB)

As part of the application process, proposed organizations must meet briefly with the New RSO Review Board (NRRB). RSO stands for Registered Student Organization. The NRRB is a group of students and staff chosen by the Office of Student Activities to review New RSO applicants. This meeting gives the organization an opportunity to discuss their mission and goals with the NRRB and answer any questions they might have after reviewing their application. Applicants are welcome to bring up to 4 members to represent their organization in the NRRB meetings. Any organizations that do not meet with the NRRB are denied RSO status will not have the opportunity to appeal. NRRB Meetings are mandatory.

The NRRB meeting sign-up sheet will be at the front desk of the Office of Student Activities for 4 days starting the Monday after application deadline. The NRRB meetings will be held at various times. Email notifications will be sent out with interview times. Any questions can be sent to stactivities@syr.edu.

New Student Organization Application New RSO Registration Process

Any approved applications will assume probationary status as a New RSO until they complete the registration process. Approved applicants will be required to attend the New RSO Orientation. Date and time of orientation will be communicated via email. This orientation will explain in-depth the registration process and the necessary steps to become fully registered. Please be aware that approved New RSOs who successfully complete the registration process will become fully functioning RSOs effective the semester following their approval.
